General Grodekoff, in a dispatch dated at Khabarovsk, Tuesday, July 24, states that a detachment of railway guards safely brought a caravan of 220 persons and officials from the railway to Zurughaitu. Chinese troops, General Grodekoff adds, are raiding and looting in the Yalu valley.

Another steamer with Russian troops aboard was bombarded by Chinese from the river bank July 24. Securing reinforcements, the Russian commander returned to the scene and landed on the Chinese side of Yalu river. He attacked the Chinese posts in the face of a heavy fire. Some Chinese pickets were taken prisoners. Three magazines were set on fire and exploded. The Chinese lost 300 killed, while the Russian's loss was only seven.
